PRAYERS FOR PALM SUNDAY

Prefiguring your holy Resurrection for us, O Lord, by your word, You raised your friend Lazarus from death and the tomb on the fourth day. You rode upon the foal of a donkey to symbolize for the Gentiles the triumph of the Savior. Therefore, Israel, your beloved, offers You praise, O Christ, through the mouths of infants and babes, the witnesses of your entrance into the Holy City, six days before the Passover.

Today the grace of the Holy Spirit has gathered us together; and taking up your Cross, we all say: Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord! Hosanna in the highest.

PRAYER OF SAINT EPHREM

O Lord and Master of my life,
keep from me the spirit of indifference and discouragement,
lust of power, and idle chatter.

(Bow)

Instead, grant to me, your servant,
the spirit of wholeness of being,
humble-mindedness, patience and love.

(Bow)

O Lord and King,
grant me the grace to be aware of my sins
and not to judge my brothers and sisters;
for you are blessed,
now and ever and forever. Amen

RECONCILIATION FOR PASCHA

The Church holds the approaching time of Holy Week and the Glorious Resurrection so sacred and important that it asks of all its members to celebrate the Sacrament of Penance and share in the Most Holy Body and Precious Blood of Our Lord, God and Savior, Jesus Christ . . . We call this our “Easter Duty.” How can anyone who believes in Jesus Christ let this most holy time pass by without being reconciled with God? . . . to acknowledge our sinfulness and seek divine forgiveness in the Sacrament of Reconciliation. Father is available for Confessions on Saturdays from 4:00 – 4:30 PM and after the Presanctified Liturgies on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday to assist us in being spiritually prepared to celebrate Pascha.

Please Note: No confessions will be heard after Wednesday of Holy Week.

Palm Sunday

John 12: 1-18

Pages 235 - 241

Palm Sunday is the celebration of the triumphant entrance of Christ into the royal city of Jerusalem. He rode on a colt for which He Himself had sent, and He permitted the people to hail Him publicly as a king. A large crowd met Him in a manner befitting royalty, waving palm branches and placing their garments in His path. They greeted Him with these words: "Hosanna! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord, even the King of Israel! (John 12:13).

This day together with the raising of Lazarus are signs pointing beyond themselves to the mighty deeds and events which consummate Christ's earthly ministry. The time of fulfillment was at hand. Christ's raising of Lazarus points to the destruction of death and the joy of resurrection which will be accessible to all through His own death and resurrection.

Finally, the events of these triumphant two days are but the passage to Holy Week: the "hour" of suffering and death for which Christ came. Thus the triumph in an earthly sense is extremely short-lived. Jesus enters openly into the midst of His enemies, publicly saying and doing those things which most enrage them. The people themselves will soon reject Him. They misread His brief earthly triumph as a sign of something else: His emergence as a political messiah who will lead them to the glories of an earthly kingdom.

On Palm Sunday palm and willow branches are blessed in the Church. We take them in order to raise them up and greet the King and Ruler of our life: Jesus Christ. We take them in order to reaffirm our baptismal pledges. As the One who raised Lazarus and entered Jerusalem to go to His voluntary Passion stands in our midst, we are faced with the same question addressed to us at baptism: "Do you accept Christ?" We give our answer by daring to take the branch and raise it up: "I accept Him as King and God!"

HOLY WEEK

In the Byzantine Church the last week of Christ's life is called Holy Week. Each day is designated in the service books as "great and holy."

Each day of Holy Week has its own particular theme. The theme of Monday is that of the sterile fig tree which yields no fruit and is condemned. Tuesday the accent is on the vigilance of the wise virgins who, unlike their foolish sisters, were ready when the Lord came to them. Wednesday the focus is on the fallen woman who repents. Great emphasis is made in the liturgical services to compare the woman, a sinful harlot who is saved, to Judas, a chosen apostle who is lost. The one gives her wealth to Christ and kisses his feet; the other betrays Christ for money with a kiss.

On Holy Thursday three events are recalled in the liturgy: the institution of the Eucharist, the washing of the feet of the disciples, and the betrayal of Judas. Throughout the liturgy the following idea is repeated over and over again, as expressed in the troparion: "Receive me today, O Son of God, as a partaker of Your mystical Supper, for I will not reveal the mystery to Your enemies nor give You a kiss as did Judas, but like the repentant thief I openly profess You: Remember me, O Lord, in Your kingdom."

On Good Friday Matins the Sufferings of our Lord is commemorated. The characteristic feature of this service is the reading of twelve Gospel passages selected from the four Evangelists. In the evening, Solemn Vespers are performed. At the end of Vespers, the priest, vested in full priestly vestments, makes a procession around the church carrying the plashchanitsa and places it in the tomb made ready to receive it. The plashchanitsa is a winding sheet with a picture of Christ's body lying dead in the tomb. In English it may be called the "Holy Shroud." During the procession the people sing the following troparion: "The venerable Joseph, having taken from the cross you most pure body, wrapped it with pure linen and anointed it with fragrant scents, placed it in a new tomb."

Holy Saturday is dedicated to the memory of Our Savior's entombment and to His descent into Hades to save the souls of the just and to open for them the gates of heaven. On Holy Saturday the Divine Liturgy of Saint Basil the Great is celebrated together with Vespers. Instead of the trisagion (since formerly on this occasion the catechumens used to be baptized) another hymn based on Galatians 3:27 is substituted: "All you who have been baptized into Christ have put on Christ. Alleluia."

The priest begins Vespers and the Divine Liturgy in dark vestments, but before the Gospel he changes into white vestments because in the Gospel of the day, Christ's resurrection is already mentioned. We are already anticipating the Resurrection of Christ.

Let us make a real effort to attend the Holy Week Services and bring our children and grandchildren with us.
