EIGHT WAYS TO LIVE A MERCIFUL LIFE ... JESUS IS OUR MODEL

8. PRAY FOR MERCY. Pray to become more merciful. Pray also for family members, friends, neighbors, co-workers and people you know who are in need of mercy. Pray for people who have hurt you. Pray for people around the world who are suffering. Pray that everyone in the world will respond to God's mercy and, in turn, be merciful to one another.

How will you pray for mercy, and for whom will you pray?

Lk. 10: 25 – 37

Tone 1 Pg. 125 - 127

Read: Luke 10:25-37

It is easy to identify someone else as the uninvolved priest or Levite in the parable of the Good Samaritan, but take a close and honest look at yourself. What do you see? Do you turn your head, so you don't have to see? Do you ignore the plea for help? Are you insensitive to the plight of those who are unfortunate?

You have only one life to live. You cannot go back at a later date and live it the way you knew you should have.. This is it. What you do with your time, what you focus on, how you expend your energy, where you place the emphasis on your life - it is all being lived out right now.

It has been said that the most sympathetic people are those who themselves have suffered. They know what it's like to hurt. And yet God through us offers so much more than mere sympathy; He offers the indwelling presence of His Holy Spirit Whom He calls "The Comforter."

As the minutes tick by today, look around you. No matter where you are, chances are you will be able to identify a person who is hurting and needs help. Will you walk by? Will you see them only as an inconvenience to your plans? Will you go out of your way to avoid the hurting one, or will you go out of your way to help him? As a Christian, you are an extension of God's life.

PHILLIP'S FAST

The Byzantine Catholic Church invites all to participate more fully in the central mysteries of the Gospel of Jesus Christ through her calendar of feasts and fasts. The feast of the Nativity of Our Lord God and Savior Jesus Christ (Christmas, December 25) is one of the great feasts of the Church year, celebrating the coming of the Messiah, Jesus Christ. Christ was born into the world through the Theotokos to offer us the wondrous gifts of salvation.

Through the mystery we celebrate in the Nativity, we too are invited to become the children of God, sons and daughters of our Heavenly Father. But this transformation does not occur overnight. Rather, it requires a rediscovery of the essential disciplines of a disciple of Jesus Christ.

The Church has traditionally taught four main ways to engage in Christian asceticism, no matter what our state in life. These are prayer, fasting, almsgiving and love. By actively engaging in these disciplines of discipleship during the time of the fast, we unite ourselves more perfectly to Christ as we celebrate the joy of the feast of His Nativity.

In anticipation of the "coming" of the Messiah that we celebrate during the feast of the Nativity on December 25, Byzantine Christians enter into a time of preparation known as the "Nativity Fast" or "St. Phillip's Fast" since it begins each year the day after the Feast of St. Philip the Apostle, November 15.

Below we offer some suggestions for ways to put into practice the four forms of Christian asceticism during the Nativity fast.

Prayer: Spend at least 15 minutes in the morning and evening in prayer each day. Pray the Jesus Prayer, "Lord Jesus Christ, Son of God, have mercy on me a sinner." Display an icon of the Nativity in the prayer corner of your house or room and spend 10 minutes each day meditating on the saving mysteries surrounding the story of Christ's Birth. Receive the Mystery of Repentance (Confession) at least once during the fast.

Fasting: Abstain from meat on Wednesdays and Fridays. Fast from certain foods, such as soda, alcoholic beverages or candy. With each meal, eat only an amount that is sufficient for nutritional needs, without feeling full. Fast from select forms of entertainment (television, movies, radio, internet, novels, etc.).

Almsgiving: Give your time, talent and/or treasure to a parish outreach or a special charity. Increase your parish tithe for the season. Clean out your house of any excessive items or possessions and share them with the poor and needy. Purchase gifts for homeless or needy children or families.

Love: Meditate on the Ten Commandments or the Beatitudes and identify one or two of these to put into practice each week. Examine your conscience each night, asking for forgiveness from God and others as needed. Find opportunities to share your faith with others.
